About Me

I I have been working in the IT industry for 15 years, holding various positions: Tester, Scrum Master, Developer, Technical Writer. In the meanwhile, I earned a Master's Degree in Telecommunications Engineering while working full-time. I have a passion for STEM culture and enjoy staying updated on science and technology. I am adaptable and goal-oriented. In the workplace, I strive to create strong empathy with those around me and love sharing my knowledge.
